Details Welcome to the British Embassy in Beijing. We are one of Britain's largest overseas Embassies. Our overall objective is to promote the interests of the United Kingdom and contribute to a strong world community. More specifically, we aim to promote trade and investment between Britain and China, develop strong political, economic, cultural and defense ties, provide a fast and fair visa service, give effective consular protection to British nationals and, through our aid program, reduce the number of Chinese people living in extreme poverty.

Details The Consular Section is responsible for the protection of British, and certain Commonwealth citizens in Greece. The aim of the Foreign & Commonwealth Office (FCO) is to promote internationally the interests of the United Kingdom and to contribute to a strong world community. This - and the FCO's more detailed objectives - are achieved through the work of policy makers in the FCO in London and the work of diplomatic missions overseas. These missions are known as Embassies, except in Commonwealth countries where they are called High Commissions. Britain also has delegations accredited to the EU, the UN and other international organisations.

Office Hours

The High Commission's working hours are from 08:30 to 17:00, Monday to Friday excluding High Commission holidays.

The Consular Center is open to public (for passport applications and consular assistance) from 08:45 to midday, Monday to Friday excluding High Commission holidays.

Details Britain has diplomatic missions in capital cities around the world. In Commonwealth countries such as Singapore, these are known as High Commissions (Embassies, in non-Commonwealth countries).

The head of mission is the High Commissioner (the Ambassador, in non-Commonwealth countries).

Details The Consular Section offers help primarily to British citizens in Slovenia. Services include applications for new passports, registry of births and deaths, preparation of the necessary documents for marriage in Slovenia and the undertaking of certain legal procedures. The Consular Section also provides information to Slovene citizens who wish to travel to Great Britain (and the other countries represented by the Embassy) and offers answers to general questions concerning the United Kingdom. Slovene citizens do not require a visa for short-term tourism, studying or business entry to Great Britain, just their personal documents. For any other purpose a visa is required. As the Consular Section in Ljubljana does not issue visas, the nearest visa issuing post is the British Embassy Zagreb (tel. 00 385 1 4555 310).
